It is the policy of THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell School to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act which are Federal laws that prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability. THE TEMPLE Frederick does not discriminate on the basis of disability against a qualified person with a disability in regard to application, acceptance, grading, advancement, training, discipline, graduation, or any other aspect related to a future professional's participation in a program of THE TEMPLE Frederick. THE TEMPLE Frederick will provide reasonable accommodations to future professionals with disabilities.

THE TEMPLE: A Paul Mitchell Partner School must provide academic adjustments, auxiliary aids and reasonable accommodations to future professionals with disabilities, that are necessary to ensure future professionals are not denied the benefits of, or excluded from participation in, THE TEMPLE Frederick's program. THE TEMPLE Frederick must make modifications to its academic requirements that are necessary to ensure that the requirements do not discriminate against future professionals with disabilities.

Future professionals with disabilities who wish to request reasonable accommodations (including academic adjustments, auxiliary aids, or modifications) must provide documentation of disability from an appropriate professional, which depends on the nature of the disability.
